Subject: Comments: draft Quitting smoking web content

Dear Roger,

My few comments on the proposed the Quitting Smoking web content are the following. They relate to mostly the accuracy of the reference materials you shared with me.

- Homepage: CDC is Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the underlined part is missing in the text.
- Ref 14, according to the materials sent for review, is www.surgeongeneral.gov/tobacco/consquits.htm, not as stated in the text.
- Reference to the "Treating Tobacco Use and Dependence" is inconsistent throughout the text, some use "Fiore ... et al." and some use "Treating Tobacco Use ...". The former format is the one recommended by the publication itself.
- Ref 34 is missing.
- I could not find the exact location of the materials referred to by Refs 46, 50.
- Ref 60 should be that of "Management of Nicotine Addiction".
- Refs 81, 82 are www.surgeongeneral.gov/tobacco/1stweek.htm, not as currently stated.

Regards,

Raymond
